Description

A rectangular black piece of paper features four colorful stamps. Each one depicts drawings of three-quarter views of explorers associated with American history. A rectangular yellow cover features silhouettes of land masses accompanied by a dark blue outline of a ship. On the proper right, near the lower corner, there are two circles with curvy text above a blue outline of a banner. There is horizontal blue text along the top and horizontal red text along the bottom. A vertical white booklet displays horizontal blue text on its cover. A blue border outlines the pages' edges.
