

Shepherd's Axe

Date

before 1976

Medium

wood, metal

Description

An axe features a silver head incised with a flower and a crosscut design along the edges. A small amber-colored gemstone precedes a design made of curved lines that are near the blade. The blade is covered with a curved piece of metal, which has a matching design. The wooden handle is decorated with a pattern of vertical dark brown lines organized in horizontal round bands. A vertical piece of metal attached to small red rings decorates the upper half of the handle.
