Description

(a) A golden heart medal displays a smaller purple heart, which features a golden relief of General Washington's profile. Above this heart is Washington's coat of arms, a white shield with two horizontal red bands below three red stars. Sprays of green leaves flank the shield. It is suspended by a rectangular metal loop with rounded corners that is attached to a vertically-striped purple and white ribbon. (b) A horizontal metal pin displays a purple ribbon with a vertical white stripe on each end. (c) A horizontal purple metal pin has a vertical white stripe on each end. (d) Golden borders decorate the edges of a black box. The interior of the lid is lined with golden fabric, and the bottom portion is padded with golden fabric. (e) An empty .223 brass rifle cartridge
