

United States Bicentennial Plaque with Aruba Coat of Arms

Date
ca. 1976

Medium
metal, wood, paper, fabric

Description
(a) A wooden plaque displays a coat of arms, which features four images: a plant, a body of water, two clasped hands, and a ship's wheel. A lion is lying across the top, and two sprigs of laurel leaves are beneath it. A silver plaque with black horizontal text is affixed to the center, and there is a silver image of a bell in the center of the bottom. (b, c) A blue fabric-covered folder features a horizontal grey piece of paper that displays two thin horizontal orange bands and a red star outlined in white.

Dimensions
Overall H 14 1/2 in x W 19 in x D 1 1/2 in (36.8 cm x 48.3 cm x 3.8 cm)